

ORDER

on distance entrance tests for foreign applicants in the Russian, English and French language in terms of the prevention of the spread of COVID-19 infection in the Stavropol region

1. The exam is in the form of Zoom video conference.
2. Each applicant must have a personal electronic device with a video camera, microphone and uninterrupted Internet during the entrance test.
3. Each applicant must have a personal ID Zoom that exactly matches first and last name as indicated in passport (Russian or English versions).
4. Each applicant connects to a video conference in Zoom at a certain time specified in the schedule, with the camera and microphone enabled (Moscow time).
5. The applicant shows the teacher a photo and name on a personal document (passport).
6. The applicant shows the space around him (no strangers in the room).
7. The applicant rotates the camera on a personal device for the demonstration of his/her hands.
8. If the applicant does not get in touch at the time specified for him, he is considered to have failed for the test.
9. If there is a communication failure on the part of the applicant within 3 minutes, the test is considered not to have taken place.
10. The applicant says “I am ready to have the test”.
11. The teacher begins an interview with the applicant.
12. The interview is taking place without preparation.
13. The video-recording is making during the interview,
14. 12 minutes is for each applicant (2 minutes – for identification, 5 minutes – first part of the test, 3 minutes – second part of the test, 2 minutes – third part of the test).
15. At the end of the specified time (12 minutes), the teacher announces the end of the test (regardless of the applicant answers).

16. The teacher makes a report on the test and mails it to the International Department within 24 hours.

17. The applicant finds out the results of the entrance test in the International Department.